

Nurse's occupational safety and nurse-patient interaction in seclusion room

EriTurva- research project
2016-2018

#Excellence
In Action

Key words:

- Occupational safety
- Mental health nursing
- Seclusion
- Violence

Main objectives:

- to promote nurses' occupational safety in psychiatric inpatient units
- to develop a practical guideline for nurse-patient interaction in seclusion room context

Project partners:

- Turku University of Applied Sciences
- Turku University, Department of Nursing Science
- HUH Psychiatry, Kellokoski Hospital

Mixed method research with four phases:

- 1) integrative literature review
- 2) video recordings from security cameras in seclusion room
- 3) nurses' focus group- interviews
- 4) practical guideline for nurse-patient interaction in seclusion room

Funded by the Finnish Work
Environment Fund

Contact information:

Senior Lecturer Johanna Berg, johanna.berg@turkuamk.fi
Principal Lecturer Mari Lahti, mari.lahti@turkuamk.fi